

Dear Friend in Christ:

We appreciate your taking time to ask our ministry about doctrinal concerns, specifically Phillips, Craig & Dean and their belief in the doctrine of the Godhead and the Trinity.

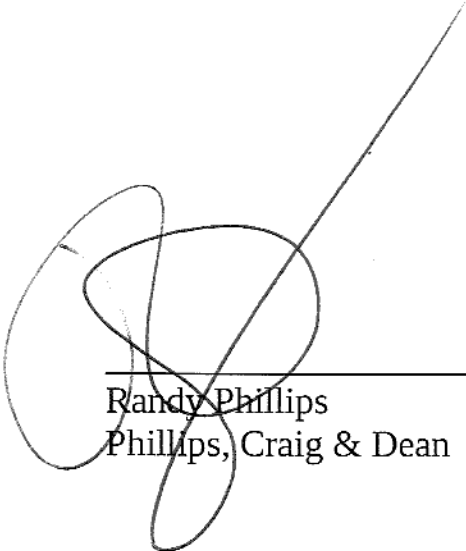

Unfortunately, there were articles written many years ago that aggressively labeled the members of PC&D as 'anti-Trinitarian. These "internet rumors" have been hurtful not only to our ministry but to the Body of Christ in general.

It should be noted that the churches led by the members of Phillips, Craig & Dean are three independent, non-affiliated, non-denominational Christian churches that are served by each individual church's vision, eldership and presbytery. Phillips, Craig & Dean fully acknowledge their past denominational affiliations and are grateful for their heritage; however, they reject the teaching of modalism, a.k.a Sabellianism.

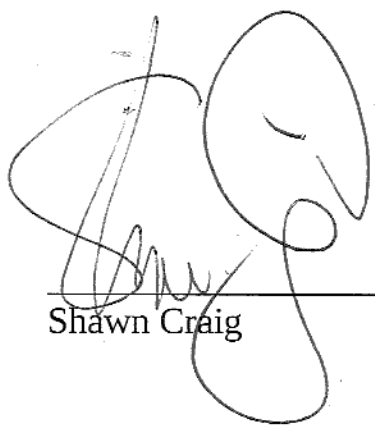

Although none of the members of PC&D are affiliated with any denomination, collectively, the ministry of Phillips, Craig & Dean affirms the statement of faith of the Southern Baptist Convention -- <http://www.sbc.net/bfm/bfm2000.asp>.
